The Royal Family of the Guitar The Romeros

Sunday, September 28, 2008 at 2PM

Tickets: $28 Student/Senior: $26

This celebrated family guitar dynasty, now made up of Celin, Pepe, Celino, and Lito returns to Citrus after an absence of over 25 years. A few fortunate musicians rise to the peak of a musical art form; a very few originate an art form. The Romeros have done both: four virtuosi on the same instrument in the same family is unique in the musical world. With countless performances world-wide, the New York Times says of them "Collectively, they are the only classical guitar quartet of real stature in the world today; in fact, they virtually invented the format."

"What the Three Tenors are to the world of opera, the Romeros are to the classical guitar."

— Joaquin Rodrigo, Spanish Composer

Sally Struthers

starring in

Nonsense

Book, music, and lyrics by Dan Goggin

Saturday, October 4, 2008 at 8PM

Tickets, Section 1: $40 Student/Senior: $38

Tickets, Section 2: $35 Student/Senior: $33

Winner of Outer Critics' Circle awards for best musical, best book, and best music, Nonsense offers a conventful of hilarity for the whole family, proving once and for all that nun rhymes with fun. You don't have to be Catholic to roar with laughter at the hilarious antics of the Little Sisters of Hoboken, New Jersey, as they stage a fundraising talent show on the set of their students' production of Grease. Presiding over the mayhem is Emmy and Golden Globe-winner Sally Struthers (All in the Family, Gilmore Girls) as the Reverend Mother. Come see for yourself why "Nonsense is habit forming!"

Musical Theatre Workshop presents

Cabaret

Book by Joe Masteroff

Based on the play by John Van Druten and stories by Christopher Isherwood

Music by John Kander • Lyrics by Fred Ebb

Directed by John Vaughan

October 9, 10, & 11, 2008 at 8PM

October 11 & 12, 2008 at 2PM

Tickets: $17.50 Student/Senior: $16.50

Citrus Little Theatre

Set in a decadent Berlin night club in the 1920s, Cabaret focuses a metaphorically distorted lens on how the history being made at the time by the rising Nazi powers affected an American writer infatuated with a nightclub performer named Sally Bowles. Within the cabaret, life is beautiful; outside, the world is rushing toward the cataclysmic events of World War II. When it was first produced in 1967, Cabaret broke from virtually every musical theatre convention - and it remains a master work today. Performed by Citrus Music Theatre Workshop students, musical numbers include It Couldn't Please Me More, Willkommen, Cabaret, Don't Tell Mama, Tomorrow Belongs To Me, and Two Ladies. PLEASE NOTE: "Cabaret" deals with adult themes, sexuality, and violence. Viewer discretion advised.

An Intimate Afternoon with a Living Legend -

Kris Kristofferson

Sunday, October 19, 2008 at 2PM

Tickets, Section 1: $45 Student/Senior: $43
Tickets, Section 2: $40 Student/Senior: $38

Kris Kristofferson has reached living legend status – and this concert, featuring just Kris alone onstage with his guitar, is a very personal acoustic afternoon with the legendary music maker. A Golden Gloves boxer – a Phi Beta Kappa scholar – a successful songwriter – a member of the Highwaymen – and an accomplished actor – Kristofferson is a Golden Globe and three-time Grammy® Award-winner. His songs Me and Bobby McGee, Help Me Make It Through the Night, Sunday Morning Coming Down, and For the Good Times, all chart-topping hits, helped redefine country songwriting. He is a member of the Country Music Hall of Fame and a recent winner of the Johnny Cash Visionary Award. After more than 30 years of writing and performing music, his current focus is on solo performance. In his words: “There’s an honesty in the sparseness... being alone is freer somehow. It’s like being an old blues guy, just completely stripped away.” His songs explore themes of love, gratitude, aging, war, and his ever-present theme of freedom.

With musical director Joey Singer

Sunday, November 9, 2008 at 2PM

Tickets, Section 1: $50 Student/Senior: $48

Tickets, Section 2: $45 Student/Senior: $43

Since her sold-out appearance at HPAC nearly five years ago, Debbie Reynolds has been THE most requested artist to bring back for a repeat visit. Join “America’s Sweetheart” for this very special afternoon that looks back at a glorious career that has (so far!) included starring during the glory years of the MGM musicals and headlining in showrooms across the country and abroad. Dubbed “America’s favorite mother” following her starring role in the Albert Brooks film “Mother,” Debbie’s show is filled with the laughter, warmth, tuneful music, and personal insights that have made her an entertainment icon for decades.

Tickets: $28 Student/Senior: $26

Listening to the music of Eileen Ivers, you'll sense that around the time she learned to hold a spoon, she began to wield a fiddle bow. Nine-time All-Ireland fiddle champion, original star of the spectacular Riverdance, and a founding member of Cherish the Ladies, this talented lady delivers a high-spirited mix of traditional and Irish airs, jigs, reels, grooves, songs, and stories – flavored by her fascination with world rhythms and musical styles. Backed by her brilliantly versatile band Immigrant Soul, Ivers' music is a blend of her Celtic roots, exuberant personality, and pure joy.

The Neville Brothers

Saturday, January 31, 2009 at 8PM

Tickets, Section 1: $45 Student/Senior: $43

Tickets, Section 2: $40 Student/Senior: $38

There is no question that the Neville Brothers are the first family of music in New Orleans, the United States, and possibly the world. Individually, their recording history spans over 40 years. As a group, the Neville Brothers have been together and recording since 1978. Their music defies classification: bayou funk, rhythm and blues, bebop, soul are inadequate labels for their unique, never-duplicated sound. Each of the four brothers has discovered his own musical identity; as a family, these "blood brothers" have created some of the funkiest sounds the world has ever heard, combining half a century of New Orleans music into one family unit. First time at Citrus!

Featuring Gil Gutierrez, Pedro Cartas, Luis Conte, and Doc Severinsen

Sunday, February 8, 2009 at 2PM

Tickets: $36 Student/Senior: $34

Doc Severinsen is back on the road with rhythm on his mind! He has joined forces with classical guitarist Gil Gutierrez, violinist Pedro Cartas, and percussionist Luis Conte and created this all-new show. El Ritmo de la Vida (The Rhythm of Life) features virtuosic classical Spanish music with a jazz flair, gorgeous American and Latino ballads, and great movie music. Since his "retirement" as bandleader of The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, Doc has had the opportunity to explore new musical vistas, but, just for the record, he has not lost his flair for outrageous fashions and witty banter!

Marcus Belgrave's Tribute to

Louis Armstrong

Saturday, February 21, 2009 at 8PM

Tickets: $26 Student/Senior: $24

From Hello, Dolly! and What a Wonderful World to Louis Armstrong's earliest classics like West End Blues, Stardust, and Potato Head Blues, Marcus Belgrave is unquestionably one of the few performers in the world with the three essential qualities needed to deliver a loving and convincing tribute to "Satchmo." He is an astonishing trumpet virtuoso with a low, gravelly voice, that naturally evokes Louis Armstrong's unique sound, and a warm stage persona that captures Satchmo's spirit and warmth with down-home humor. He happens to look like Louis too! Backed by a hot, seven-piece band and vocalist Joan Bow, his concerts are a joyous trip down memory lane.

Marcus Belgrave brings Satchmo to life . . . he's considered among the finest jazz musicians in the world.

With an astounding 18 gold and platinum albums to his credit, his list of hits includes Born Free, The Impossible Dream, Till, Almost Paradise, Two Different Worlds, Lara's Theme from Dr. Zhivago, and the theme from Somewhere in Time. Backed by five musicians, his concert will feature everything from Rachmaninoff to The St. Louis Blues, Exodus, Chariots of Fire, and, of course, Autumn Leaves. Other highlights of this memorable afternoon include Roger's famous "By Request" medley (awesomely improvised from audience suggestions) and, if schedule permits, the opportunity to see and hear the custom solid-gold piano created in his honor by the Steinway Corporation.

My Sinatra – The Songs and Stories

Starring Cary Hoffman

Saturday, May 9, 2009 at 8PM

Tickets: $32 Student/Senior: $30

My Sinatra is NOT a Vegas-like impersonation, but rather a sincere artistic interpretation of the brilliant songs Frank Sinatra turned into American pop standards in his classic period from 1953 to the early 1960s. Cary Hoffman doesn't imitate Sinatra – but he sure does sound like him! Frank's music and Cary's stories of growing up in New York idolizing the "Chairman" are an unforgettable celebration of an American original. This remarkable concert was recently featured nationwide on PBS – don't miss it live in concert.

Cary Hoffman is an amazing talent . . . like Sinatra in his prime! – New York Post

Ice Cream, Music, and Fun! A Folk Festival with The Lovell Sisters Band and Tom Rush

Sunday, May 17, 2009 at 2PM

Tickets: $28 Student/Senior: $26

16 and under: $14

Gather up the family and come early for this spring afternoon of music and fun for everyone! We'll be startin' this Folk Festival early – transforming our patio into a party with foot-stompin', hand-clappin', pre-show music and ice cream sundaes for all! Then the up-and-comin' Lovell Sisters Band, winners of the "Prairie Home Companion's" talent contest will treat you to some heavenly blue-grass harmonies. These ladies play like pros, sing like angels, look like models, and are destined for stardom. Headlining our afternoon is folk singer and guitarist Tom Rush, who "rocketed" to stardom – after a career spanning more than 40 years – with The Remember Song, a YouTube phenomenon that has been heard more than 3 million times! A gifted musician who has been part of the folk scene since the 60s, his distinctive guitar style, wry humor, and expressive voice fill his concert appearances with rib-aching laughter, terrific storytelling, and, most of all, good times.

Set in colorful turn-of-the-century New York, two vaudeville comics named Weber and Fields gather an all-star cast to put on the first "electrical spectacle" on Broadway - and stir up a storm of trouble with the ruthless syndicate of the time in the hilarious tuneful plot. This loving homage to old-fashioned "singing and dancing" Broadway Musicals features Dale Kristien (Phantom of the Opera), Adam Wylie (Picket Fences, Wicked), and Alan Rachins (LA Law, Dharma and Greg) in the large cast, together with an all-new script and score by celebrated showman Milt Larsen of the Magic Castle and tunesmith Dick Sherman (Mary Poppins, Chitty-Chitty Bang Bang).

20, 21, 26, 27, 28
at 8PM
22, 29 at 2PM

Starring
Cherie Brown and Doug Goetz

This Tony® award-winning play is a shattering and memorable experience that combines edgy banter with tragedy and despair. The writing is brilliant and the story captivating as we watch George and Martha flirt, cajole, flatter and entice through one revealing evening.

Both plays contain Mature Themes.

JULY

11, 12, 18, 19,
25, 26 at 8PM
13, 20, 27
at 2PM

Four couples are at a deputy mayor's townhouse to celebrate his 10th wedding anniversary.

The party never begins because the host has shot himself (it's only a flesh wound) and his wife is missing... and the situation gets crazier from there! A hilarious farce with guaranteed laughs from beginning to end!

directed by
Dean Hess

Tickets: $17 • Student/Senior: $15

Pastries & Coffee will be served at intermission.
