Music Theatre Workshop presents

The Sound of Music

Music by Richard Rodgers Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II
Book by Howard Lindsay & Russel Crouse
Suggested by The Story of the Trapp Family Singers

October 21, 2011 at 8PM

October 22, 23, 2011 at 2PM

Tickets: $17.50 Student/Senior: $16.50 16 & under: $15

It's hard to believe that Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote their last musical together more than 50 years ago. Set in the glorious Alps in pre-war Austria, The Sound of Music tells the story of Catholic postulant Maria Rainer who becomes the governess to the Von Trapp Family children – and changes their lives and her own. One of the most popular musicals of all time on both stage and film, the score includes My Favorite Things, How Do You Solve a Problem Like Maria?, Edelweiss, the inspiring Climb Ev'ry Mountain, and, of course, the title song. It's a show for all generations, and features the combined talents of our own music theatre workshop performers and musicians in a beautiful new production.

Tackling a masterpiece by Stephen Sondheim is not a task to be taken lightly, but the faculty and staff of our own musical theatre workshop program are looking forward to accepting the challenge!

Sophisticated, macabre, visceral and uncompromising, Sweeney Todd also has a great sense of fun, mixing intense drama with howlingly funny moments of dark humor and aching beautiful musical passages. The story chronicles the revenge of unjustly accused Sweeney against the lecherous judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife... and fresh meat pies figure into the plot as well.
Curious? Come see for yourself!

Warning: Sweeney Todd contains intense action sequences and graphic images that
